J. G. Reed, of Solano, called Wednesday and called our bluff and says they are ready to debate with the Roy debaters any time or place.

JUSTIFYING HIS JUDGMENT.

Mrs. Flittson—I declare to goodness your judgment is getting worse every day!

Flittson—What's the matter now?
Mrs. Flittson—Why, on so many occasions you have declared that Mrs. Shapeler had a husband who tried his best to be kind and indulgent; but this morning's paper says he attacked her yesterday and nearly killed her.

Flittson—Why, that account proves my claim.

Mrs. Flittson—Proves your claim that he tries his best to be kind and indulgent?

Flittson—Yes; haven't you often heard his wife say she wished she was dead?

YET HE MEANT WELL.

Just as the Jackson park train was leaving the Fifty-eighth street elevated station, a man who had got off there hurried along the platform and spoke to a passenger sitting by an open window in the smoking car.

"Quick!" he said. "Please hand me that package. I left it on the seat when I got out just now."

"Sure," said the passenger, picking up the bundle and tossing it out of the window.

"Thanks!"

"Hey, there! What are you doing that for?" demanded the wrathful red-faced man sitting next to him.

"Why, he—"

"You double dyed idiot, that package belonged to me! It was $15 worth of laces and ribbons I was taking home to my wife!"

Over the scene that followed let us draw a veil.
